16 PIETERNELLA:
DAUGHTER OF EVA

BY DALENE MATTHEE

(Penguin Books, R190)

THE STORY Set in the early days of the white settlement at the Cape of Good Hope, this true story reveals how life was heaven and hell rolled into one for Pieternella and her siblings, who were among the first mixed-race children born at the Cape.
WHY WE LOVE IT It's a beautifully written, truly South African novel.

17 HOW TO
BE SINGLE
BY LIZ TUCCILLO

(Atria Books, R290)

THE STORY Julie Jenson decides that she and her four closest friends are living the single life the wrong way. So she quits her job to explore how single women around the world are doing it right.
WHY WE LOVE IT It shows that women are all actually quite similar. We especially love the single rules to live by.
